

Art! Ideas for Working with Young Children

‘Creativity’ - that flourishing of the imagination - is one of the most important qualities we can help develop in young children. And using ‘art’ is one of the best ways to do this.

Art activities offer children opportunities:

- to explore using stimulating materials
- to freely express their vision of the world around them
- to communicate ideas and feelings
- to free the imagination
- to challenge their ability to create from a blank canvas

In this two-session workshop, we will share ideas and techniques that you and your child can do at home and in school. Learn how to make maths more fun through art, how to create conversations with craft, see the science in art, feel good with finger paint, work with recycled materials and a whole lot more.

This is a very hands-on workshop, so come prepared to get a little messy!
