

Creating a Literate Home

“When will my child begin to read?” is one of the most frequently asked questions by concerned parents.

As your child’s first teacher when it comes to literacy development, there are many things you can, and should do, to ensure a strong start when helping them to learn to read.

In this workshop we will explore:

- How to create a literate environment at home : materials that you need and how to organize them.
- How to encourage your child to read and write at home.
- How to lay the foundation for lifelong reading and writing.
- How to interact with your child to foster literacy development.
